

CZAR RECALLS BALTIc FLEET

Commander Has Received Word Not To Proceed to the Far East...Very Imperative.

STARVATION SIEGE IS NOW BEGUN

The Japanese Will Now Withdraw All Troops Except Those Necessary To Coop Garrison in Securely.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
London, Dec. 10.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says definite instructions have been sent to Admiral Rojestvensky, commander of the Baltic fleet, not to proceed to the far east. The czar took the matter into his own hands and issued the order, despite the opposition of the grand dukes.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
London, Dec. 10.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post says the Russians, with the exception of those garrisoning the forts at Port Arthur, have retreated to Liao-tshuan, where they will take up their final position.

STOESSEL TO STARVE.

Gallant Defender of Port Arthur is at Mercy of Japanese.

Tokio, Dec. 10.—The destruction of the Russian fleet marks the end of serious fighting at Port Arthur. The garrison will be simply starved out. The main object of the siege was the destruction of the fleet.

There will be no necessity to keep a large army before Port Arthur. It is believed that at least 50,000 troops will be sent to reinforce Oyama's army on the Shakh.

It is believed that 30,000 men, or even a smaller number can carry on the starvation siege of the remnants of Stoessel's garrison at Port Arthur.

Russian prisoners report that the food supply of the Port Arthur garrison is insufficient. The men subsist on short rations of bread made of a mixture of flour and coarser grains, while the officers get horse flesh twice a week. Dysentery and typhoid, the prisoners say, are prevalent.

Owing to the bad weather a supply and the supply Utofuku, shrub a of fresh vegetables cannot be obtained, and the supply of dried meats was finished a month ago. The prisoners are well clothed but terribly emaciated.

Unofficial reports remark upon the strange passivity of the defenders of Port Arthur. The Russian guns do not reply to the Japanese. No movement is observable in the western harbor nor in the eastern harbor, so far as it is visible.

The reports concerning the condition of the battleship Sevastopol are contradictory. One says that the battleship is practically undamaged and seems to be preparing to make a sort of. The destroyers in the harbor are

SENATORS ARRIVE TO TALK OVER THE ORGANIZATION

Gathering of the Administration Clans at Madison This Afternoon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Madison, Dec. 10.—A dozen senators were on hand when the administration caucus began at noon—Senators Stoddard, Martin, McGilivray, Noble, Harten, Burns, Wylie, Munson, Wipperman, Frear, Hudnall and Morris. The others counted in the administration—Stout, Wilcox, Stevens, Sanborn and Froehling—were expected on noon trains. Stout and Sanborn are “right” with the administration, but Froehling, Stevens and Wilcox are the unknown quantities for the determination of whose factional

DRUGGISTS ASKED REGARDING MAN

Postal Authorities Want To Know Something of E. A. Kuenstel.

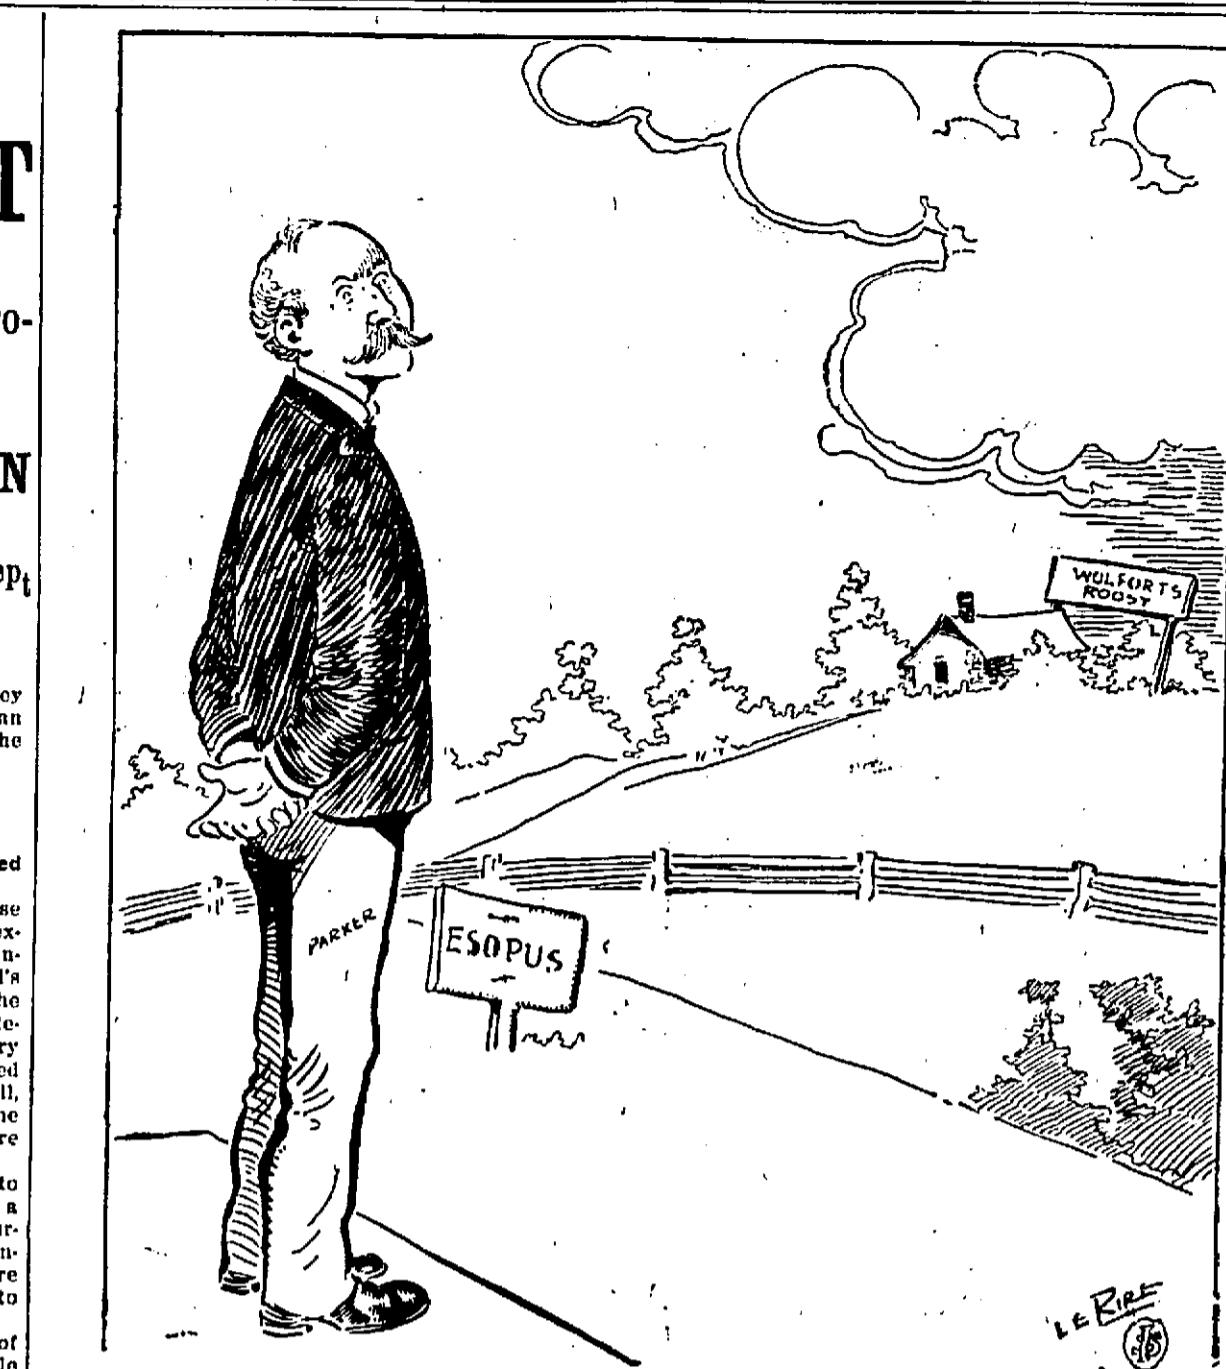

Janesville druggists have received inquiries from the post office inspectors in Chicago regarding information of E. A. Kuenstel, who has been arrested for selling and advertising for sale Aristol and many other hundred compounds. Mr. Kuenstel is accused of using the mails for illegal purposes and the postal authorities are now anxious to secure all the evidence they can against him and finding addresses of Janesville druggists among his possessions have written to see if any goods were purchased here.

THIEVES ROBBED A PEORIA BANK

Beat Assistant Cashier Over Head, Secured the Money, and Made Their Escape.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Peoria, Ill., Dec. 10.—Two men entered the Peoria National bank at one-thirty this afternoon and ordered the tellers to throw up their hands. The men did not obey quickly enough and they snatched their revolvers which refused to go off. They then beat the assistant cashier over the head and held another employee at bay, grabbed all the money in sight and escaped in a buggy. It is believed the amount taken is large.

Buy It in Janesville.

The Late Judge Parker—They m' arveled at my silence before election but it was a continuous conversation compared to David Hill's mummess since November 8.

TORPEDO BOATS FOR RUSSIANS

Vessels Built at Port Amboy Yards, New Jersey, to Fight the Japanese.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Perth, Amboy, N. J., Dec. 10.—The blue torpedo boats which were built for the Russian government in the local ship yards are to be shipped today. They will be taken on a barge to New York city, where they will be re-shipped on an ocean liner. A tenth boat of similar description will cross under its own motive power.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE.

Ira Marlatt of Cayuga county, O., in prison at Columbus, stabbed John Jones, a Clark county prisoner.

Jenkin Ferguson, a negro who killed Willis Hampton over a 25-cent debt, was hanged at Lake Charles, La.

Elias Johnson, a farmer living near Orenville, Mo., shot and killed his wife, believing someone was stealing his chickens.

John Allen, who in July, 1903, shot and killed his wife near Luther, Okla., was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Four more bodies have been recovered from the coal mines at Bunker, Wash., making a total of sixteen victims of the recent explosion.

At Madison, Wash., the house of Arthur Raines was destroyed by fire and children aged 5, 4 and 2 years, respectively, were burned to death. The parents were away.

Mrs. Frank Jarzewski, a farmer's wife who lived two miles from Mantowoc, Wis., is dead from burns, the result of an explosion when she attempted to start a fire with kerosene.

Thieves entered the post office at Harrison, Westchester county, N. Y., and stole $180 in cash, $700 in stamps, three registered letters and a watch which was being sent through the mails.

All cars of the Great Northern westbound train except the two baggage cars were derailed by an open switch at Harvard Lake, Minn. Several passengers were injured, none seriously.

State Building Inspector Morgan at Columbus, O., has sent to his deputy inspectors throughout the state orders to strictly enforce the laws against selling adulterations in excess of the theaters' seating capacity.

Oliver Picket, a prisoner from the Hutchinson, Kan., reformatory, leaped from a Santa Fe passenger near Topeka, Kan., while the train was running at a high rate of speed and escaped. He was handcuffed at the time.

DRUGGISTS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Beloit Man Will Be President for the Coming Year—Visited the Beet Factory.

J. M. Farnsworth of Beloit will be the president of the Rock County Druggists' association for the coming year. Mr. Wilson of Edgerton will be the treasurer and L. E. Schmidt of Evansville the secretary. After an interesting meeting at which delegates from Beloit, Milton, Evansville, Edgerton, Clinton Junction and Janesville were present, the association spent the afternoon at the sugar plant where they witnessed the methods of making sugar from beets.

A SUPREME COURT JUSTICE REMOVED

President Deposes Ben Baker in New Mexico—Partisanship the Charge.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 10.—Judge Benjamin S. Baker, an associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico, was today removed by the order of President Roosevelt. The charges, made are that partisanship was shown in several important political cases. Justice Baker has gone to Washington to make a strenuous effort to have the order recalled.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WILL INTEREST WEED GROWERS

Will Deal With Many Subjects Concerning the Culture of Tobacco.

In the next annual report of the secretary of agriculture will be several treatises concerning tobacco and its production, which will prove of interest to all growers and handlers of tobacco, for it may mean money to them. Among the subjects that will be dealt with are about the experiments in growing filler from Cuban seed. In Texas, the growing and curing of cigar leaf in Ohio, the production of wrapper leaf in Connecticut under shade, the improvement of export tobacco, and the investigation of the new diseases known as “will.” The secretary also states that a preliminary survey of the tobacco lands of Porto Rico has recently been made as the basis for extended experiments in that island.

DONATES $25,000 TO A SCHOOL

Dr. D. K. Pearson of Chicago Will Redeem a Promise.

Kingfisher, Okla., Dec. 10.—Dr. D. K. Pearson of Chicago has notified President J. H. House of the Kingfisher college, controlled by the Congregational church, that he would send his check for $25,000 to the college in a few days. Two years ago Dr. Pearson offered to give this amount to the college if the college would raise $75,000 from other sources. The $75,000 was raised and Dr. Pearson will fulfill his promise.

Revolutionists Kill Traitor.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10.—The janitor in a house in Warsaw who betrayed thirty-seven leaders of the revolutionary party to the executive and arranged for their arrest was found dead in bed. On a piece of paper pinned to the clothing on the corpse was written: “Executed by order of the revolutionary committee.”

Offer Land for Sanitarium.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 10.—Mayor A. B. Gibson telegraphed to Mayor Wells of St. Louis an offer of 600 acres of land here and as much more as may be needed for a site for the National Fraternity building at the exposition, which is to be used for a consumptive sanitarium.

Woman Gets $240,000.

New York, Dec. 10.—A fortune of $240,000 from Bronx real estate has just come to Mrs. Becker of this city.

MORE RACERS ARE DROPPING OUT

Awful Gruelling Pace of the Night Tells on the Riders This Morning.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

New York, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Three more teams were forced out of the six day bicycle race this morning as the result of the terrific sprints during the night. Seven teams now remain. At eight o'clock this morning the Root-Dorlon and the Van Dersuyt-fel-Stol teams were still leading. The score was 2158.5.

STATE NOTES

It is reported that E. P. Sawyer is negotiating for the purchase of the Oshkosh Water Works company. The report, however, is denied by W. G. Maxey, president of the latter company. Mr. Sawyer owns the Oshkosh Gas Light company and the Oshkosh Electric Light and Power company.

H. W. Meyer, publisher of the Appleton Volksfreund, is inspecting the plant of the Wisconsin Telegraph of Oshkosh, with the idea of purchasing the property. The Telegraph is a German weekly, democratic in politics, and was founded in 1867. It is published by Allen & Weidner, the former being Gen. T. S. Allen, former publisher of the Northwestern.

Gorgine Larsen left Sweden recently for Kenosha, but was detained by the immigration officials at New York who announced that she would be sent back to her own country because she had no funds. Ebey Peterson, her sweetheart, came to the rescue by making affidavit that he would marry her as soon as she arrived in Kenosha, and the girl was released.

Portage is not suffering from a smallpox epidemic as reported. The disease, in a mild form, has been noted there since last summer, but it has been so mild that a majority of the persons affected did not know that they had smallpox. True smallpox was noted in Portage with the advent of cold weather, but there have been only a half dozen cases. For these quarantines was ordered.

In response to a request from the Chicago police chief of Police Baker of Madison has located an Olds automobile there that had been stolen in the Windy city from Charles A. Plamondon. A Madison firm purchased the machine from a prosperous looking stranger two weeks ago for $260, the seller saying that the reason he let it go for that low price was because he was temporarily pushed for money.

Edward Parker, accused of bank robbery in Maryland, is known as Baraboo as Frank Parker, and formerly was a resident of Baraboo. He eloped from Pittsville with another man's wife about ten years ago. They were arrested and served jail sentences. The woman afterward returned to Pittsville and to her husband. When released Parker went to Waukesha and worked for a lumber company.

At the annual business meeting of the Southern Wisconsin Old Settlers' association at Palmyra the officers elected were: President, W. H. Carlson; vice presidents, C. Olson and Jerome Trewyn; Palmyra; F. P. Wilbur, Milwaukee; Horace Clemons, Eagle; L. H. Lyman, Whitewater; John Chapman, Little Prairie; E. E. Dow, La Grange; Thomas Jones, Ottawa; E. Howell, Dousman; James Acker, Hebron; Earl Newton, Sullivan; secretary, R. L. McCarthy.

MRS. CHADWICK STILL IN CELL

Is Not Able To Secure Bail as Yet...Reads Papers Very Closely Today.

LEARNS OF FINDING SECURITIES

These Remarkable Papers Bear the Alleged Signatures of Andrew Carnegie—Are Worth Paper Written On Only.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Chadwick was still languishing in the Tombs this morning. After breakfast she read in the morning papers the account of the discovery of the five million dollars in securities, held by Banker Reynolds, being worthless. It was the first she knew that this fact had been made public. Mrs. Chadwick has quite regained her remarkable nerve.

Dr. Levin, the city physician, declared this morning the woman is perfectly sound physically. It is practically certain that Mrs. Chadwick will not go to Cleveland if she secures bail. She is under orders of Commissioner Shultz to appear before him a week from today. At eleven Attorney Carpenter had not obtained bail. He seemed to have lost confidence that the cash would be forthcoming.

Very Mysterious.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—The mysterious “securities,” held in trust by Banker Reynolds for Mrs. Chadwick, which were announced as valueless yesterday, consist of the following: A note for five million dollars signed by Andrew Carnegie; certificate of trusteeship, which states that Carnegie has in his possession stocks and bonds to the amount of seven million five hundred thousand dollars held in trust for Mrs. Chadwick. This paper also bears the signature of Carnegie. The note for five millions is believed to have been written and signed by the same person who executed the notes for a half million, and a quarter million held by the Oberlin bank. All of these securities are likely to be placed in evidence at the Cuyahoga county grand jury investigation here today. Banker Reynolds, it is said, personally loaned Mrs. Chadwick his entire fortune.

[PRISON DAYS ARE NUMBERED]
New York, Dec. 10.—The days of Mrs. Chadwick's imprisonment in the Tombs are, it is believed, numbered. After a fruitless attempt on the part of her attorneys to find bondsmen in this city, a ray of hope came to the wizard of finance in the form of a telegram from a club at Tippecanoe, Ohio. It asked the amount of bail under which she is held.

Neither Mrs. Chadwick nor her attorneys would confirm the report that the long sought bond was at last forthcoming, but there was visible change in her demeanor. She seemed more cheerful and retired with a contented look upon her face.

That insanity will be Mrs. Chadwick's defense in the charges to which she must answer in Ohio was intimated by her attorneys. A report was current about the Tombs that the courts would be requested to appoint a commission to examine her. Lawyer Powers would say nothing of the rumor, but laughingly remarked, “It would make a pretty good defense in a criminal action, wouldn't it?”

CANTON JAMESVILLE ELECTED OFFICERS

Fred L. Smith Made Commandant of Patriarchs Militant at Meet.

[CUT OF FORMER JAMESVILLE PASTOR]
Canton Jamesville No. 9, Patriarchs Militant, elected the following officers Friday evening:

Commandant—Fred L. Smith. Lieutenant—W. H. Parish. Ensign—J. F. Hutchinson. Clerk—Jas. A. Fathers. Accountant—W. H. Burchell. Trustee, 3 yrs.—Leslie Holmes. Trustee, 2 yrs.—L. V. Paul.

PARISHIONERS GIVE REV. PENCE AN AUTO.

[DETROIT TRIBUNE OF MONDAY CONTAINS CUT OF FORMER JAMESVILLE PASTOR]
Detroit Tribune of Monday contains cut of former Jamesville pastor seated in new machine.

E. M. Calkins has received a copy of the Detroit Tribune of Monday, Dec. 5, which contains a double-column picture of Rev. Edward H. Pence, formerly of Jamesville, in his new automobile. It is explained under the picture that the auto was presented to Rev. Pence by those who have been his parishioners for the past five years, as a token of esteem. A Mr. E. Y. Swift conceived the idea and headed the subscription list. He believed that the machine would save time for the pastor in his calls on members of the church who are quite widely scattered, and would thus enable him to do more good Christian work. Rev. Pence is well remembered in Jamesville where he was for several years pastor of the local Presbyterian church. The Fort street church at Detroit, of which he is pastor, is one of the largest in that beautiful city.

ONE WAY TO DO CITY AFFAIRS

[PRAIRIE DU CHIEN MAYOR TELLS HOW THE CITY GAVE TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS]
Out in Prairie du Chien when in need of money to promote a public utility they call a mass-meeting of citizens, tell them what is wanted, have them petition the council for funds and then have the council appropriate the funds out of the city treasury. That was the plan mapped out by the man who wanted to have a beet sugar factory established there, and, according to Mayor E. T. Martner who was in the city this morning for a conference with Mr. Hapke, that was what was done. A mass-meeting of the citizens was held, they petitioned the council for twenty-five hundred dollars, the

OLD FOGY SAYS HIS WEEKLY SAY.

ENDORSES PLAN FOR A POLICE TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

A POLICE LETTER STRICTLY

Does Not Endorse Any One Candidate for Election as City Marshal.

To the Editor: I see that E. Pluribus Unum has an idea as to how the police department should be run so as to secure the best service of the officers. I am glad that some one has thought the plan out. I agree with E. Pluribus Unum in every detail. Particularly when he says that a young man, not an old one, should be at the head of the city police matters. The days of the old club and the slouch-hat are gone. What we need is a force of neat, natty looking police men who are not afraid to do their duty regardless of favoritism. A force of men whose chief object is to preserve the peace not to slip up back alleys and take their "morning's morning" or their "evening's evening." These days are gone in the dim background. The old days of the club and brutal force are passed. Janesville has grown in the past twenty years and no one realizes it more than I do. I can remember the day when Hogan first became marshal can remember the day he was fought with the crowd at a picnic in Black Hawk woods and loaded his prisoners into a wagon; in caravans, in every vehicle he could find. John Brown remembers that day too. He was there and so were others of the time residents. Those days are past. We are forced to confront new difficulties. We need not only a forceful man at the head of city affairs but we also need a man who can think. A man who can act. A man who can detect a crime. And without being told, he is one. A man who is up to date in police matters, not a man who has been out of the race for ten years.

Telephone System.

I do not want to do all the talking in this matter of police reform. I have my own ideas but they may be warped by time. While I live in the past to a certain extent I believe I am broad enough to see a good system and understand its value when it is present and I think that E. Pluribus Unum, who ever he is, had the right idea. Install a police telephone system and make the policeman travel regular beats. Put the policemen in uniforms. Do away with the old slouch hats and slouch habits of the department, "row the crooked clubs into the fire and give to Janesville an up-to-date department" with a live man at the head of it. The council has power to do this. They had power to buy voting machines, they have power to lay sewers and they have power to install a police telephone system and to elect a city marshal who will be a credit to the city. Not only elect a city marshal but to see that the police department is made stronger and better and that the weak members are dropped forever. Business men all over the city deplore the present conditions. Hardly a day goes by that I do not hear some one declaiming on the laxity of the present system. I do not blame Officer Brown for this. Far from it. Officer Brown has done his duty, as well as he could. He has been terribly handicapped. During the last year of Chief Hogan's life he had all the work and none of the authority. I am informed that he is now in a manner restricted in using his authority due to the fact he is a candidate for election of city marshal and to make radical changes now would jeopardize his chances. It is not Mr. Brown's fault things are as they are. It is the fault of the council. Let them act.

For the Chief. I have written from time to time upon the police department. I have written upon other subjects as well. I am called a grumbler but I can stand that if the people will think for themselves. I do not mean to advise the aldermen to vote for John Brown, to vote for John Constock or to vote for William Appley. I have found that in talking with the average alderman he is struck with his own importance the insignificance of the person who converses with him. It is a mistaken idea, I do not think that they should be like the man who tried to please everyone and then pleased no one but they should listen to the opinions of the men who elected them and be guided somewhat by them. I say I have not tried to suggest or to dictate who should be city marshal. In fact such a move would have been disastrous to whomever I favored. I am free to admit I do favor one of the candidates and believe that in his election Janesville would be the party benefitted. However, there are six aldermen who do not or did not agree with me so I am forced to wait and abide by their judgment. Meanwhile the time goes on and no selection is made. Matters are at a standstill and the reorganization of the department is as far away as ever.

When They Act.

When the council act let them be cool and deliberate in their decision. It is an important place to be filled. It is a vacancy that will probably not occur again for five years at least. Let us review the three leading candidates: John Constock first, as he had the most votes. He is a worthy citizen. He has served his country well as a sheriff many years ago. He is not a young man, he is not a man used to night work, but he has a strong sturdy constitution and would be able soon to adapt himself to the work of his office. He has been out of the police work for many years, is practically unknown to a good share of our citizens which might perhaps be considered a good feature in efficiency. He is a clean man, a man of good habits and well liked by his friends. He is not biased in his opinions as he follows his own council. Then comes John Brown. Brown has been for many years a member of the police department of the city. He is known to every citizen and has had experience that fits him for the position in question. He has served as undersheriff, as deputy sheriff, as police officer and as acting marshal for twenty years at least. Perhaps none of the three candidates has been as actively engaged as has Mr. Brown. Of William Appley much can be said in his favor. He has good claims to be considered one of the best sheriffs and best police officers Rock county has ever had. His work as city marshal of Beloit won him praise from all quarters. As a detective he is highly thought of by Chicago officers. He has solved many hard problems and has dared to go into places after his prisoner where many others would have shirked. His brother George is also a candidate although he received no votes at the last council meeting. George Appley is just finishing a term as sheriff. His work in this office is fresh in the minds of everyone. He ably served the city of Beloit as marshal and police officer for many years and is well fitted for the place. T. Acheson is also a candidate. Like John Constock, he is an ex-sheriff. He has been in and out of police work ever since he left the sheriff's office and made Janesville his home. While he is advanced in years he is still bold and hearty.

"OLD FOGY." The Editor: The Gazette would be glad to publish articles on topics of public interest that may be handed into the office. The name should be signed to the article but will not be published unless so desired. The right to "edit" copy is reserved.

GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

HEADACHES FROM COLDS

Lazuly Brown, Quilling removes the cans to get the goutious canister full name and L. W. GROWING, 25c.

Mrs. Austin's Quick Rising buckwheat makes tender, crisp brown cakes. Your grocer can tell you all about it.

LOW GRADES BEING CLEANED OUT NOW

Absence of Casing Weather Makes Demand for Even the Musty and Moldy Tobacco.

There is one thing concerning about the absence of casing weather this year. It is the fact that all the tobacco stored in Wisconsin is getting thoroughly cleaned out—the moldy, the musty, the cheap and the almost worthless lots are being disposed of at a price not large enough to pay for the cost of production but at a price that is better than a total loss to the owner. The warehouses are being relieved of the low grades which have up to this last month or two been as a drug on the market. Anything that looks like tobacco that has been stored in the warehouses is going along with the rest of the goods that is now being sold to the story manufacturers and exporters. The odds and ends collected from season to season for the past several years have disappeared and the amount of cheap tobacco which at the beginning of autumn was large is now small. In this housecleaning there is one thing that angers good for both the grower and dealer when the new crop does come on the market. It is the fact that all the low grade article is being disposed of and making way for a more compensative handling of the top crop. All the local warehouse men seem to have done some dealing though not in a great measure, yet some of the shipments may seem large considering the present condition of the market. The movements in the Janesville market for the week are as follows:

M. F. Green & Sons, shipped 6 cars to eastern market and received 4 cars of 1902; Fisher & Fisher shipped east 1 car of 1902 and 3 cars of 1903, and bought 125cs of 1903; A. N. Jones sold 2 car lot of 1902 goods; S. Soverill shipped 1 car lot of 1903; R. Eler disposed of 75cs of 1902 and purchased 88cs of 1903; L. B. Carle & Son secured 200 cases of 1903 and sold 300cs of 1902-3.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

Phoe's Cigar—30 years on the market, and still the best for Coughs and Colds.

If Your Rent is too high, wouldn't it be better to sub-let a furnished room than to move into a cheaper house.

is too high, wouldn't it be better to sub-let a furnished room than to move into a cheaper house.

Gazette Want Ads bring the right sort of inquiries. Want Ad phone 77-2 rings.

Three Lines Three Times, 25c

WANT ADS.

WANTED—Two collectors at Janesville. Address, P. L. Brown, Room 209 and 212, Brown Bldg., Rockford, Ill.

Mrs. E. McCarthy, 216 W. Milwaukee street, will furnish hoop skirt notices. She always has places for girls looking for a good home. Confections and cigars. New phone No. 415, old phone, 4122.

WANTED—Ladies to learn corsage making. Every lady can make her own corsage. Corsets, with 15 inches waist. Mrs. L. J. Williams, 32 W. Milwaukee street.

WANTED, for a writing room, a room, attending our school—Please to work mornings, evenings and Saturdays, for his board, Valentine Brothers.

WANTED—Gentlemen engaged and proposed. Velvet collars put on for St. Robert's No. 23 S. Main St.

WANTED—A computer girl. Good wages. Good family. Apply at 105 S. Lawrence Street, Third ward. J. C. Hostick.

WANTED—For cooking apples in city, pelargoniums. Imported Gulem (Gulem Rose) and lactophosphate of lime to be had at H. M. Frost's drugstore, a ready prepared. Price, $1; quart, $1.50, same as advertised in the Beauty column.

ADIES AND GENTLEMEN—We pay $20 per day $100 cash for copying at home. No mailing or advertising. Material furnished. Particulars, Imperial Specialty Co., 229 W. 12th St., N. Y.

WANTED—A brooch containing pearls, size 14 mm., and a diamond, on South High or Locust between Center St. and Washington Ave. Return to Park Grocery. Reward.

WANTED—A position, by a young girl, in hotel, laundry or factory. 148 East Main street.

WANTED AT ONCE—A delivery boy at Nease Bros., 121 W. Milwaukee St.

STRAYED ON Nov. 20th—Small boy, male, weight 100 lbs., about 5 1/2 years old, white spot on forehead, with heavy tail; burns with cut on right forward foot. J. Crali, 115, Milwaukee St., Janesville.

WANTED—Men who have a little money that they want to invest in a good paying home industry. We have a little stock that we are willing to sell at a reasonable price, and a 2 percent dividend, payable semi-annually. This is your opportunity to make a good safe home investment. Taylor & Lowell Manufacturing Co., Call on E. W. Lowell, Carpenter block.

WANTED TO BUY—Two-light weight horses suitable for delivery horses. Address, Tucker, 411 Main Street.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

100 LOTS FREE.

Applicants send me stamp will receive deed of lot, size 50x100, Suburb, New York, 20th Century Realty Co., 6 Wall St., New York.

WANTED by a competent colored girl—Work by day; washing, ironing, sweeping, dusting. Best of references. Mrs. Bole, White, Highland House.

WANTED—Recommencement to organize an office and distributing depot for large manufacturing concerns. Salary $100 per month, room and board. Address, 22 W. 23rd St., Clinton.

WANTED—For a boy, 14, 1/2 day good chink for the holidays; must speak German. Holmes' Dry Goods store.

MALE HELP WANTED—Telephone representative to distribute and collect for large clothing houses; $80. per month and expenses. Mansfield Bag Co., etc.

WANTED—Good home for invalids, either city or country. Must be persons of good character. A. H. Haywood, Merchants & Mechanics' Bank, etc.

FOR RENT

MRS. Belle White, Highland House, will furnish a room, with all necessary furniture, including safety deposit box, for a desk, table, chair, etc. Rent, $100 per month. 305 E. Milwaukee St., New Milwaukee.

FOR RENT—Four rooms for hotel housekeeping and team-hoed hills. Give location. Apply to F. H. Snyder, Carle Block.

FOR RENT—Nine room house and barn at 208 S. Avenue St. Inquire of Mr. Erickson, at the C. & N. W. round house, or 15 Washington street.

FOR RENT—Furnished room, with bath, either with or without lavatory, to two gentlemen. No. 18, Main Street.

FOR RENT—Up to date flats and houses. Also houses suitable for boarding houses. Apply to F. H. Snyder, Carle Block.

FOR RENT—A four room, ground floor flat, gas, heat, water, electric, and heat for wood and coal. Located at 101 Belmont street.

FOR RENT—Sister Bents, 15 acres choice land, close to city, P. L. Clement, opposite Grand Hall, Money to loan.

FOR RENT—Flat over Flynn's restaurant, 61 West Milwaukee street. Inquire of M. P. Richardson.

FOR RENT—Nice easy furnished room; heat, etc. Inquire at 153 E. Milwaukee St.

FOR SALE

FOR RENT—A front office will be sublet in the J. C. Crali Building, including safe, top desk, flat top desk, tables, chairs, etc. Rent, $100. Inquire at 305 E. Jackson Building.

FOR SALE—Three of the best pieces of inside property, $200. E. N. Pendleton, 37 S. Main St.

FOR SALE—Some more fresh cows, one nice, gentle five year old Jersey, Chas. S. Maltby, N. Main street.

FOR SALE—A sacrifice—A few Banjo pianos of the highest grade. The Banjo ranks the Steinway, Kinde and Chafee, and the price is the same. Will be shipped to any part of the country, including Sunday, 7 to 10 p. m. Room 1, 161 West Milwaukee street, over Cunningham's restaurant.

FOR SALE—Special bargains in book cases, side boards, bed room sets, stoves, and some household articles. W. C. Cannon, 123 West Milwaukee.

FOR SALE—Used for the chamber; large or small, over under; $10.00; both phones, W. M. Kenner, Robert, R. A. F. 25.

FOR SALE—Barber shop at 151 N. Main St. Inquire of F. G. Smith.

MALE HELP WANTED

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU

Men may fail to succeed through lack of opportunity. We lack the time to fit hundreds of like professionals now on our staff. We have Executive, Clerical, Technical and Sales positions paying from $100 to $150 per month, with excellent opportunities. If you want to better your condition write for plan and booklet. Offices in 12 cities.

HAGOODS (Inc.), Brana Brothers
1213 Hartford Building, Chicago

Coming Attractions.

"Human Hearts."

On Tuesday next the stage of the Myers Grand will be devoted to the presentation of the popular and highly successful play "Human Hearts," with a company of superb excellence and strength. The author of the play, is an actor of wide experience and fully understands the tears into laughter.

are of playmaking from the stand-point of both the spectator and the lives—lives no play is acceptable under.

Actor, His effects are produced by a splendidly mounted Miss Herd quickly, but none the less does his manager have not overlooked this important feature. The scenery used in "Wedded But No Wife" is said to be unusually pretty and effect-to require more than a passing word upon the plot. The main thread of the story centers around Tom Logan, who is unjustly accused of murder, and sentenced to life imprisonment.

During a recent Washington engagement, Mr. William Bonelli who ambitious woman, runs away with plays George Hathaway the American old lover, and goes to New York. Gentleman in the play of that name, Even in a woman degraded as she is, was invited to the White House to give an exhibition of his wonderful strength and muscular development before the president. Mr. Roosevelt's admiration of such things being well known, Mr. Bonelli added several new feats to his repertoire in honor of his distinguished audience. The president was delighted and at the conclusion of the program offered Mr. Bonelli his autographed photograph.

JIM MASON

The Queensland (Australia) locomotive Enginemen, Firemen and Cleaners' Association has decided to remain affiliated with the Public Service Association.

There is a movement on foot in Liverpool, Eng., to cope with the existing want of employment and distress.

Labor unions of Los Angeles, Cal., have purchased several building lots in the heart of that city and are about to begin the erection of a $50,000 labor temple.

Native laborers in India receive 4 cents a day for 16 hours' work.

The strike situation at Youngstown and Girard remains the same.

When chilled to the bone

use Painkiller
(PENNY DATES)
Stops Colds & Pneumonia

SELMA HERMAN OF "WEDDED BUT NO WIFE" COMPANY

are dispelled by the sweet sunshine of a true woman's love.

Mr. Bonelli then asked the president if he would not add his opinion and idea of an American Gentleman to his autograph, to which Mr. Roosevelt cheerfully assented. As a consequence the photograph in Mr. Bonelli's possession, and which he prizes highly, reads as follows:

Mr. Bonelli's starring role this season involve the production of a new play by Maurice J. Fleischman, the author of "A Ragged Hero," "The Old Oaken Bucket," and other melodramas, entitled "Wedded But No Wife." The leading role, "Wimble Winfield," is especially suitable for the display of Miss Herman's ability. The youthful star loves emotional roles, and in "Wimble" she has found one just to her liking. It runs the traits of American citizenship."

Mr. Bonelli then asked the president if he would not add his opinion and idea of an American Gentleman to his autograph, to which Mr. Roosevelt cheerfully assented. As a consequence the photograph in Mr. Bonelli's possession, and which he prizes highly, reads as follows:

"An American Gentleman is the highest type of manhood. Courteous and gentle, he will fight for the right, and be gentle with his inferiors. His love of home, and his innate truth and honesty are the best traits of American citizenship."

Mr. Harry Greenwalt expects to move on the J. M. Cleveland farm on Saturday.

Mr. J. H. Inman sold three Brown Swiss cattle this week which will go to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Overstrude returned home last Monday after spending a few days in Wool Co.

Miss Sophia Jacobson who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Nauvoo hospital returned home last Wednesday.

Mr. B. J. Taylor had an operation performed on one of her eyes in January. The operation was successful.

Rev. Chas. Porterfield is the new M. E. pastor on the Orfordville and Plymouth charge.

FOR RENT—Three of the best pieces of inside property, $200. E. N. Pendleton, 37 S. Main St.

FOR SALE—Up to date flats and houses. Also houses suitable for boarding houses. Apply to F. H. Snyder, Carle Block.

FOR SALE—Barber shop at 151 N. Main St. Inquire of F. G. Smith.

FOR SALE—Male help wanted.

Holiday Excursions.

For the Christmas and New Year holidays the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell round trip excursion tickets between all stations at greatly reduced rates. Dates of sales Dec. 24, 25, 26 and 27, 1904, and Jan. 1 and 2, 1905. Limited to return Jan. 4, 1905, inclusive.

FOR RENT—Furnished room; heat, etc. Inquire at 153 E. Milwaukee St.

FOR SALE—Male help wanted.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU

Men may fail to succeed through lack of opportunity. We lack the time to fit hundreds of like professionals now on our staff. We have Executive, Clerical, Technical and Sales positions paying from $100 to $150 per month, with excellent opportunities. If you want to better your condition write for plan and booklet. Offices in 12 cities.

HAGOODS (Inc.), Brana Brothers
1213 Hartford Building, Chicago

AMONG THE WORLD'S WORKERS

News Notes From Various Sources of Great Interest to the Workingman

All the branches of the Southern Shearers' Union, of Australia, report that everything points to an increase in membership this year.

Bakers of Montreal, Canada, have raised the price of bread one-half cent for two-pound loaf. The claim is made that this action has become necessary because of the increased cost of flour.

Some large additions have recently been made to the English Labor Representation Committee, including the Amalgamated Tailors, 15,000 strong.

Reduction of the monthly wage from $15 per month, the summer rate, to $10, the winter rate, has caused a strike of deckhands at Seattle, Washington.

Organizers of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters have begun to form unions composed of automobile drivers who operate business vehicles. The movement, which started at New York, is being carried on in all the larger cities of the country.

The Innsbruck Municipality, according to the Vienna (Austria) correspondent of the London Morning Post, has discharged 700 Italian workmen hitherto employed on public works.

A series of strikes in the Government arsenals and powder factories at Lorient, Brest and Toulon, France, is assuming menacing proportions. Five thousand strikers at Brest made a demonstration recently, and there was much minor disorder. Large forces of troops have been concentrated at the various ports. The strikers include armistice telegraphers, thus interrupting government dispatches.

Representatives of the New South Wales (Australia) coal miners recently waited upon the State Attorney-General to urge that the Arbitration Act be amended by excluding the legal profession from practicing in the court, and for the creation of another Arbitration Court to deal with the enormous number of cases awaiting hearing. The Minister promised to bring the matter before the cabinet.

The Queensland (Australia) locomotive Enginemen, Firemen and Cleaners' Association has decided to remain affiliated with the Public Service Association.

There is a movement on foot in Liverpool, Eng., to cope with the existing want of employment and distress.

Labor unions of Los Angeles, Cal., have purchased several building lots in the heart of that city and are about to begin the erection of a $50,000 labor temple.

Native laborers in India receive 4 cents a day for 16 hours' work.

The strike situation at Youngstown and Girard remains the same.

When chilled to the bone

use Painkiller
(PENNY DATES)
Stops Colds & Pneumonia

Ask your dealer

to show you the new

Western Lady

Shoe for Women

It is a perfect shoe, the final result of years of experience in shoe making—graceful in every line, handsomely modeled after the newest patterns; very stylish, extremely comfortable and unusually durable.

—It represents the highest type of shoe quality produced under the name of "Mayer's Western Lady."

name and trade-mark. If you want the most for your money get the "Western Lady."

Your dealer has or can get Mayer's "Western Lady" shoes for you. Send us his name and receive our elegant style book.

We also make "Stella Washington" shoes. Our trade-mark is stamped on every sole.

F. MAYER BOOT & SHOE CO.

MILWAUKEE, WIS.

THE JANESEVILLE GAZETTE.

Entered at the postoffice at Janesville, Wisconsin, as second class mail matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

Daily Edition—By Carrier

One Year $1.50

One Month50

One Year, cash in advance60

Six Months, cash in advance30

Three Months, cash in advance15

Daily Edition—By Mail

CASH IN ADVANCE

One Year $1.00

Six Months50

One Year—Rural delivery in Rock Co. .30

Six Months—Rural delivery in Rock

County15

WEEKLY EDITION—One Year50

Long Distance Telephone, No. 77

Business Office77-2

Editorial Rooms77-3

As "a feather will turn the scale," so, sometimes, a very little more space for your advertising will make it a great deal more profitable.

rainy cloudy tonight and Sunday; variable winds.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

A half century ago when, the late Judge Conger and Judge Sloan were in their prime, they were in the habit of spending a day at Lake Koshkonong together every now and then for a little recreation.

The old Bingham home was noted in those early days for hospitality, as it has been ever since, and one day in October the two scions of the law appeared on the scene, equipped with new guns and evidently prepared to slaughter all the ducks in the southern part of the state.

After dinner Uncle Ezra Bingham said to his boy, Ira, a lad of 14: "Ira, you take a boat and paddle Judge Conger over to the west marsh and I will take Judge Sloan down to mud point, and they will both get some shooting."

So they started out, Judge Conger in the bow of the boat and the boy punting for him. When they reached the rushes the mallards, which were very plenty, commenced to jump up within easy range and the Judge pointed his gun, took aim, but failed to shoot.

After going through this performance half a dozen times the boy became as restless as a dog when he attempts work with a poor hunter, and as the boat shot out into clear water he laid down his paddle and said:

"Judge, I've been out with a good many men duck shooting, but I never knew any of them to point a duck down. You have to shoot to kill ducks, you can't hurt them by pointing at them." The Judge admitted in his dignified way that the lad was probably right, but his gun was new and he didn't want to strain it by shooting too far. The boy picked up the paddle and said: "Well, I hadn't thought of that," and then, he continued:

"I'm going to locate you just around that point in the rushes where you can drop the birds in the open water and then we'll be able to find them. You shoot when I tell you to and there'll be no danger of straining the gun."

A few minutes later they were in good cover with mallards flying in every direction. Soon the boy noticed half a dozen birds swinging down close to the water and coming right at them. He said quietly:

"Now, Judge, here they come, get ready and don't fail to shoot."

The Judge got ready but his nerve failed him, and said: "Here, boy, take the gun," and a minute later three green heads were floating dead on the surface of the water.

The boy continued to shoot, and at four o'clock they picked up 25 ducks and started home. As they approached the house loaded down with all the birds they could carry, they noticed coming around the corner of the barn, Judge Sloan and Uncle Ezra, each carrying a pair of mallards. With a wink at the boy Judge Sloan said:

"Judge Conger, did you shoot all of those ducks?"

"Well," the Judge replied, "we shot all of them."

"Yes, I know," said Judge Sloan, "but I am not asking for a judicial opinion, do you shoot all of them?" "Yes," the Judge replied, "we shot all of them and they are a fine lot of birds." Turning to Mr. Bingham Judge Sloan said:

"Ezra, if you had been as good a shot as your boy we might have had some ducks."

"You can't point down a duck," suggests the thought that the prizes of life are not won by pointing at them, or by a desire to possess them; unless this desire is backed by hard intelligent effort.

There are plenty of people in the world who spend valuable time and plenty of it in getting ready to do things, but when the opportunity comes it passes like the duck, with no effort to grasp it.

There is a scarcity of men today who possess confidence in their ability to do things. It isn't the man who says, or the man who tries, but it is the man who does, that is in demand.

We live in an age of specialization. Progress is too rapid for the average brain to grasp. It all and men are learning to be content when they master one thing and become expert in its execution.

The day of the quack doctor and the cure-all remedy belongs to the past, and so the day of the man who can do anything and everything is also of another age.

The young man who applies for a position in a store or office soon discovers that the business world is not looking for men who can do everything. What it is looking for is the man who can do some one thing above the average of the men who compete with him.

When the late President McKinley called for a young soldier to carry a letter to Garcia, he was pleased with the volunteer who tendered his services, because he said in response to the question: "Can you deliver this message to Garcia?" "I can." There was no hesitation about it, no saying, "I think I can," or "I'll try," but simply, "I can," and so he was entrusted with the important document, and went forth in the strength of his young manhood to face danger and suffering, but he delivered the message.

Albert Hubbard used the incident for story and it was so full of good advice to young men that the New York Central Railway company used it for a text book and sent a copy to every employee of the road.

The man who does things is in demand today as never before. The captains of industry are not confined to the little coterie of men who have gained great prominence in the industrial world. They are found in embryo in every community. Men who are successful above the average because they possess the ability to do things.

This class of men are object lessons which every young man may study to advantage. It is always worth while to note carefully how success in any calling is attained, and the man who profits by this kind of study is always the man who is willing to learn.

The great school of life is the school of observation. It is a free school and open to all classes. The college course may or may not be of advantage as a foundation. That depends on many things, but the best equipment, backed by a mind that is not open to observation, and unwilling to profit but it, is doomed to failure.

You can kill more ducks by shooting than by pointing, and you can capture more prizes in the same way. Don't say, but do. Don't try, but act, and success will follow.

PRESS COMMENT

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: It is reported that the genuine French sardine catch off the coast of Maine is enormous.

Chicago Record-Herald: Bertha Krupp's income is $2,400,000 a year. And she doesn't seem to be anxious to purchase a title.

Chicago News: Those Oberlin bankers were innocent bystanders for fair.

Grant County Herald: A Platteville young man lost $30,000 the other day in three seconds. The hefters said "no."

Superior Telegram: Next month the 13th comes on Friday. We never like a month that has its unlucky days come double headers.

Exchange: It cost Congressman Badeck $5,471 to be re-elected. We're not entertaining any idea of running for the office.

Madison Journal: It has been discovered that bits of earthenware from granite lined vessels are what cause appendicitis, and hereafter people will please refrain from licking the dish after eating their oat meal.

El Paso Herald: Admiral "Swallow-hob" Evans is to command the Atlantic squadron, and in the course of his two years' tour of duty that ocean will have said to it all the things that sensible transatlantic passengers can think.

Superior Telegram: Seedless oranges came into the field of commerce some years ago and now a company has been organized in Baltimore to propagate them. The next thing in that line will probably be seedless watermelons.

Oshkosh Northwestern: On the other hand the fact is pointed out that the question of globular boats, especially in the life saving service, is being given a good deal of attention at the present time by others than Nissen, and by some it is even held that the perfection of this idea will furnish a valuable aid and addition to life saving apparatus in case of shipwreck. If, therefore, Nissen has succeeded in his undertaking it is claimed that possibly he would have been

"Judge Conger, did you shoot all of those ducks?"

"Well," the Judge replied, "we shot all of them."

"Yes, I know," said Judge Sloan, "but I am not asking for a judicial opinion, do you shoot all of them?" "Yes," the Judge replied, "we shot all of them and they are a fine lot of birds." Turning to Mr. Bingham Judge Sloan said:

"Ezra, if you had been as good a shot as your boy we might have had some ducks."

"You can't point down a duck," suggests the thought that the prizes of life are not won by pointing at them, or by a desire to possess them; unless this desire is backed by hard intelligent effort.

There are plenty of people in the world who spend valuable time and plenty of it in getting ready to do things, but when the opportunity comes it passes like the duck, with no effort to grasp it.

There is a scarcity of men today who possess confidence in their ability to do things. It isn't the man who says, or the man who tries, but it is the man who does, that is in demand.

We live in an age of specialization. Progress is too rapid for the average brain to grasp. It all and men are learning to be content when they master one thing and become expert in its execution.

The day of the quack doctor and the cure-all remedy belongs to the

DE Prices

Cream
Baking Powder

Used in Millions of Homes.

40 Years, the Standard. A Pure Cream of Tartar Powder. Superior to every other known. Makes finest cake and pastry, light, flaky biscuit, delicious griddle cakes —palatable and wholesome.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.,
CHICAGO.

NOTE.—Avoid baking powders made from alum. They look like pure powders, and may raise the cake, but alum is a poison and no one can eat food mixed with it without injury to health.

Called as the inventor of something valuable, and instead of sarcasm and unfeeling abuse he might have reaped rewards which would have helped to make him both famous and independent. Is it not possible, therefore, that Peter Nissen was not the fool that he has been termed by many? Just a little better foresight in the construction of his boat, just a little better calculations as to the time for making his voyage, just a little change in steering his craft, just a little bit of that elusive thing we are pleased to term good luck, if it had come to him at the moment of need, and he might have accomplished his object and been shrewd enough to utilize it for future success.

It is the finishing touch to a beautifully furnished home.

Kanawha Splint Coal Is the best soft Coal on the market. Ignites quickly and burns to a fine ash. All kinds of hard and soft coal, Gas House Coke, 300 cords dry Oak and Maple. Give me your order and get the best.

Sager's Coal and Wood Yard. NORTH BUFF STREET.
New Phone, 311.
Old Phone, 4181.
THE YARDS OPPOSITE GAS WORKS

THE XXTH CENTURY SEWING MACHINE

SEVEN GRAND PRIZES

(Highest Awards Obtainable)

BY THE INTERNATIONAL JURY AT ST. LOUIS, TO THE SINGER MANUFACTURING CO.

For FAMILY SEWING MACHINES

Especialy for "No. 66" absolutely the lightest running lock-stitch machine in the world.

For Embroideries, Laces and Tapestries

Made on Singer Sewing Machines for family use.

For Greatest Progress and

Most Recent Improvements

In sewing machines for manufacturing purposes.

Two Hundred Different Sewing Machines shown in Operation for Every Stitching Process.

-POWER-

Cheap and Safe.

One to Ten Horse Gasoline Engines for all purposes.

A Gasoline Engine that is low priced, safe and Warranted. So simple a child can run it.

The best power for farm and general utility work—in fact a machine that fills a want. Special attention to repairing engines. Agents wanted.

TAYLOR & LOWELL MFG. CO.,
Factory, North River St., Janesville, Wisconsin

A Holiday Suggestion For Home Decoration.

Nothing is more appropriate, more useful, or more valued than a

Portable GAS LAMP...

It is the finishing touch to a beautifully furnished home.

The Most Economical The Best Light For Reading.

Imported Japanese Bronze and Cloisonne Bases. Art Domes, hand decorated Kiel Art and German Imported.

Prices from $4.00 per complete Lamp and up...

NEW GAS LIGHT CO.

WOOD

This wood was cut from our own forest last winter and we know it's dry and will make a quick, hot, lasting fire; and we deliver it to you sawed at: $8.00 per cord for maple; $7.50 per cord for maple and birch mixed; $6.00 per cord for dry pine slabs.

SCRANTON COAL.

Clean, clinkerless, free burping. We have it in all sizes. Some A1 No 2 Nut just in. Try it.

SOFT COAL.

Pocahontas, Black Band, Hocking Domestic Nut for cook stoves—in fact anything you want. Service the best

PEOPLES' COAL CO.

Yard, Pleasant St., foot of Washington. New Phone 293, Old Phone 2061. City Office at Badger Drug Store. Both Phones 178

A SPECIAL REQUEST

Owing to the extra demands made on our picture framing department we suggest an early order for your Holiday pictures.

Special rates made on framing for next week.

All the artistic and popular styles.

Frames made up

25c, 50c, 75c, and $1.

PERFUMES

When we talk of handkerchief extracts we don't ask you to look at a small line of odors. We know the favorites of the best make and our assortment is without doubt the best the market affords. Several of our odors come from England, quite a number from France, and the balance are picks of the best American manufacturers.

We carry quite a line of Alfred Wright's and also Riegers California Perfumes, made where the flowers grow.

IRIS

Is one of our new and pleasing odors 75c per oz, 1-2 oz 40c. Ask for a sample on your handkerchief.

SMITH'S PHARMACY

Kodak and Kodisk Supplies
Two Registered Pharmacists

The Savines Store

ARCHITECTURE OF ANCIENT ROMANS

PROF. WRIGHT GAVE ILLUMINATING LECTURE YESTERDAY.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE ARCH

And Materials Furnished by Volcanoes Made Great Buildings Possible—

St. Louis Fair Rome's Triumph.

Members of the Janesville Art League and visitors fared forth on a pleasant and profitable journey among the ruins of ancient Rome, with Prof. Theodore Lyman Wright yesterday afternoon. The lecture was illustrated with fine stereoptican pictures, which added much to the enjoyment of the auditors. The great baths of Caracalla, long used as quarries and now bereft of their costly marbles, with the dome of St. Peter's looming up dimly in the distance just as the great historian Gibbon saw it when he wrote "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," and Shelley creating "Prometheus Unbound;" the baths of Diocletian with their columns of Egyptian granite; the Pantheon with its Greek portico and massive dome lighted by a single "eye" 28 feet in diameter, a building partially constructed in the time of the Savior and containing the tombs of Raphael and the Italian kings; the tomb of Hadrian with its great square base and circular mausoleum, once surmounted by a massive cone of bronze; the theatre of Marcellus, built by Augustus; the coliseum of Flavian amphitheatre, another quarry for the Rome of the Popes, overgrown with trees and a thousand different shrubs in the time of Byron; the temple of Castor and Pollux in the forum; the great arch of Constantine; and the arch of Trajan in southern Italy, mirroring like a bill-board the conquests of the emperor; the temple of Vesta at Tivoli, near Rome, under which lie the caverns and mysterious disappearing cataracts of the river Anio; all these enchanting ruins and many others were visited, and even the fountain of Trevi, into which the tourist tosses a coin to insure his return some day to the Eternal City, was not overlooked.

The Arch Is The Motif

Approaching Rome from the south, the first ruins that greet the traveler's eye are gaunt, haunting bits of antiquity—the remnants of the Claudian aqueduct which long before the Christian era brought water to Rome from the hills, forty and sixty miles away. These aqueducts were carried on high arches, and were passed over the city gates, the water flowing on a gentle incline many feet above the surface of the earth. Here we find the principle of the arch put to a practical use. This principle was the key-note or motif of Roman building. The Egyptians and Assyrians knew it, but neglected it in their great works. The Greeks never got further than beams supported by pillars. But the Romans used the arch, and by its aid were enabled to cover great distances, with comparatively fragile material. On one of the slopes of the Esquiline hill, where a cave-in had occurred many years ago, the guide permitted his company to gaze at the great Roman sewer—the cloaca maxima, built in three tiers of arches by Tarquinius Superbus. Graceful, drooping vegetation of figs and moneywort and maiden-hair fern had over-run the historic masonry and it presented a very beautiful picture. This great sewer had borne a great part in the history of Rome because without it, the low forum which it drained, would never have been possible.

Love of the Ornate

Greek art had its beautiful exteriors but its structural limitations permitted only small interiors. The arch remedied this latter deficiency for Roman art and gave to the building a solid, strong, and dignified appearance. But a love of display led the Romans to overlay their exteriors with superficial Greek ornaments—entablatures, Greek cornices, and engaged columns—which had no work to perform other than to "stick on" and therefore nothing to do with the structures. Of this Ruskin bitterly complains. Yet a splendid display was secured and the tendency is still strong in our own day. Imagine the St. Louis fair without this method. President Francis and his helpers did not show how their buildings were built, but covered up the handicraft with ornament. So, as we trod up and down those plazas, we said: "This is the triumph of Rome!" The Chicago fair was the triumph of Greece. The St. Louis exposition depended on the aid and organization of many forms of construction. It was pompous and grandiose in its general effect.

Orders of Architecture

Back in Egypt we must go for the simple column with its fluting and the long architrave. This passed to Greece and was also developed in Etruria. The Ionic order was borrowed from Greece which borrowed it from the Orient. In the capital an attempt is made to imitate the opening of flowers. The Roman Doric, Corinthian with its capital of coiled acanthus and tendrils was more elaborate than the Greek. The composite was a style of capital used only in Rome. It was a combination of the Ionic and the Corinthian, as in the capitals in the front of the Janesville post-office building. There came a time when there was a tendency to infuse life into these geometrical principles and we find instances where a statue of one of the gods is used in place of the rosette in these composite capitals. So here we have a beginning of what was afterwards one of the tendencies of the Gothic architecture.

Materials Used

In building the reticulated, opus incertum, and opus articulatum forms were used. Pepper-stone and tufa from the volcanoes and volcano powder which combined with lime made the most excellent hydraulic cement, formed the materials. The masonry was generally overlaid with stucco made from fine marble mixed with sand and on this the marble ornaments were overlaid. When the marble was taken off these buildings the masonry decayed.

Present-Day Tendencies

There is a movement in Paris and Brussels, in Cleveland and Buffalo, to evolve an art nouveau. The German rooms at the exposition were different from anything we have ever had. Yet it is probable that our public buildings at least will continue to remind us of the great structures of Rome. The next lecture on "The Forum" will be given on Jan. 13.

TO THE MERCHANTS.

Copy for display advertising must be in the office by noon. It is a physical impossibility to set large displays in an hour. Many papers demand that this class of copy be in the office 24 hours in advance.

The Gazette desires to accommodate its advertising patrons, but there is a limit to what can be done in three hours in the afternoon. A late paper annoys the reader and destroys the value of advertising. Kindly have copy in the office on time.

LODGE MEETINGS TONIGHT

American Lodge No. 26, Daughters of Rebekah, at West Side Odd Fellows hall; Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen at Assembly hall, Sunday.

FUTURE EVENTS

"Human Hearts" at Myers theatre Tuesday evening, Dec. 13. Selina Herman in the emotional drama "Wedded But No Wife" Friday evening, Dec. 16.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

Christmas goods at Lowell's. Expert coffee demonstrator at Fredenthal's Monday.

Tuesday evening a home talent concert will be given at the Central M. E. church, which promises to be one of the best of the season, and for which elaborate preparations have been made. Mr. Mills of Beloit will furnish the readings.

Get a cup of delicious coffee Monday at Fredenthal's. Beautiful line of Rosary beads and prayer books at Skelly's.

An array of dainty cut glass peppers and salts, such as has not been in our stock in many days, is here now. The assortment is great and the lot is marked at special prices because of our desire to move them out to make room. F. C. Cook & Co.

Get our reduced prices on all cloaks and suits. T. P. Burns.

The box stationery for Christmas gifts at Skelly's bookstore.

One of the very choice lots of holiday goods at F. C. Cook & Co.'s is a line of fancy leather goods for ladies consisting of bags, pocketbooks, purses, and card cases. Articles of real sealwalrus, etc., the newest novelties on the market.

New patterns in fine important fancy china at Skelly's bookstore. Hint to coffee makers Monday at Fredenthal's.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

In Uncle Sam's Service: Charles Stinson of this city, who recently went to Kansas to enlist with the army at Wichita, and was subsequently sent to Columbus barracks, Ohio, to be drilled, has arrived at Ft. Constitution, New Hampshire, where he will remain for the winter, having enlisted with the Coast Artillery. Mr. Stinson was formerly a fireman on the North-Western, working on a switch engine at Cary, Ill., just before he joined the army. His sister and mother reside here.

Teeth Bent by Missile: Bert Moyer, employed by the Kneikerbocker Co., was struck in the mouth by a stone on Thursday and three of his lower teeth were bent out of position by the impact! They were straightened by Dr. Richards. Mr. Moyer says that 18 cars of crushed gravel are being shipped each day from the plant.

Expected to Land Today: Graham Galbraith, who sailed from Liverpool with a consignment of horses two weeks ago, is expected to land in Philadelphia today.

Marriage License: A marriage license was issued yesterday to Homer Sylvester of Milwaukee and Jeanette Atwood of Edgerton.

A Correction: Through a mistake the following ladies were omitted from the list of those that were on the committee at the King's Daughter's sale and supper: At the supper—Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Albert Watson, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. L. K. Crissey; at the handkerchief booth—Miss Floy Dunwidde assisted.

'Twas a Black Cat: Acting Chief Brown and Officer Morrissey were called to the home of Mrs. Clark, No. 5 Lincoln street, last evening to remove a black cat from the ceiling. Mrs. Clark heard a noise from below and imagined that a burglar had entered the house.

Chicago Smallpox Case: According to Chicago papers John Dalton, a former Janesville man who came from Iowa last week, was afflicted with smallpox at the Mayflower boarding house on South Clark street and removed to the Isolation hospital. No record of such a man having resided here can be found.

Inhuman Treatment: The attention of the Humane society was this morning called to the treatment given a horse by a family living in Monterey. The animal is completely broken down and was left on the river bank where he was unable to rise or resent the severe beatings that were administered to him.

Two Horses Die: Acting on the complaint of the Humane society that certain residents of Western avenue were abusing a horse that had fallen down and could no longer rise, Acting Chief Brown visited the scene this morning and found that the animal had been chloroformed and the carcass taken away. A horse owned in the third ward was also killed this forenoon.

Golf Club Bus: The bus for the golf club house will leave Baker's drugstore tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

Woman and Her Tears. No woman enjoys crying unless somebody knows about it.

SOCIETY.

The following is the program of the second meeting of the Musical Literary society on Monday evening at the library building:

Musical Notes..... Miss Paulson

Piano—Serena Neapolitana. Scobell

Miss Treat.

Songs—

(a) The End of the Silver Moon.

(b) Robin Hood's Farewell, from Tiffershaden.

Mr. Leonard Matthews

Violoncello—Serenade..... Dennee

Mr. F. F. Lewis; Piano, Mrs. Lewis

Songs—

(a) Had a Horse..... Korhay

(b) O Let Night Speak of

Me..... Chadwick

Mr. J. S. Taylor

Piano—Hungarian Rhapsody, No.

6..... Lissz

Miss Caldwell

Songs—

Polly Willis..... Arne

L'Ete..... Chamindine

Mrs. John G. Rexford

Violin—Mazur..... Myuruski

Miss Ellen Crandall

Song—The Two Grenadiers. Schumann

Mr. Rollins

Piano—Faschingsschwank aus

Wien..... Schumann

Mrs. Clarence L. Clark

Song—Lullaby..... Miss Ade. Pond

Mrs. John G. Rexford; Piano—Miss

Pond; Violin—Miss Crandall

Quartette—Asleep, Adream, Awake

..... Vanderpool

Messrs. Crandall, Van Pool, Taylor,

Paris.

"REASON" WRITES OF JOHN BROWN

THEY WILL HAVE TO STAND TRIAL

Tells Eight Reasons Why He Should Be the City Marshal—Argu- ments Well Laid.

To the Editor: One must concede that "Old Fog" is doing good service with his pen for the community. His discussion of most immediate importance, however, is in regard to the election of a new chief. I want to add him, if I may, in reaching a correct conclusion in regard to that matter. He has not had much to say in regard to our present acting chief, though he has once or twice adverted to him favorably.

Among some of the strong claims which entitle Mr. Brown to the thoughtful and earnest consideration of the commonwealth are: 1. He has proven himself an efficient and successful chief as acting marshal. 2. His record as a public officer for twenty years has been good. 3. His experience in training has been in Janesville and with reference to conditions existing in Janesville, which will be his field of duty as chief, if elected to that office. 4. His training for a score of years has been under one of the most efficient police officers in the state of Wisconsin or the northwest has ever had. 5. He has been a citizen of Janesville from his birth, his interest is in his own city and he will be desirous of keeping up the good name of Janesville's police force. 6. If permitted to be with the police force some new and young blood whose incentive to efficient service will be promoted by the prospects of advancement in the service. 7. The encouragement of promotion ought to be given to the present acting chief unless this reason is entirely outweighed by tested superiority in some of the other candidates. 8. Mr. Brown is yet a young man without other interest than to serve the city faithfully and well. We feel assured "Old Fog" will not dissent from those qualifications which Mr. Brown possesses for the office, and we feel assured that the aldermen will consider them, and we trust they will elect John Brown chief of police of Janesville. "REASON."

A Machine for Women

should be the best obtainable. The singer sewing machine is acknowledged the lightest running, most durable and convenient of any. Look for the red S. 14 Corn Exchange block, Janesville, Wis.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved father.

MR. AND MRS. W. H. MOSHER.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Honeysett left yesterday for a trip to England.

Mrs. R. F. Campbell of Watertown, S. D., is visiting with Mrs. H. A. Patterson.

Rev. J. F. Poorman is seriously ill at his home on South Academy street.

Ira Blow as a Milwaukee visitor yesterday.

Miss Margaret Taylor of Brookfield was a visitor in Janesville Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Pryor, wife of Senator

Pryor of Denver, Colorado, is the guest of her sister in this city, Mrs.

J. F. Schmidt.

Miss Delta Worley has been visiting friends in Brookfield.

Joseph Grundy is in St. Louis on business.

John Sweeney returned yesterday morning from a short visit in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNaught announce the safe arrival of a daughter born this morning. Mrs. McNaught was formerly Miss Helen Pritchard and is at present at her mother's residence.

J. C. Berryman of Brookfield was a visitor in Janesville Thursday.

Edwin Mend left this morning for a few days' visit in the Windy city.

Grover Wheeler leaves this evening for Whitewater where he will be spending the next few days at the home of his parents.

J. W. Bates of Beloit was a visitor in the city today.

Theodore Hapke went to Madison this afternoon on business connected with the newly incorporated sugar factory company of Dane county.

W. J. Lawrence and Joe Harvey were Watertown visitors Thursday.

Twentieth Century

To the Editor Gazette: Those fortunate enough to hear the eloquent discourse on "Municipal Ownership in the City of Glasgow, Scotland," by Miss Clara B. Colby of Washington, D. C., were profitably entertained.

Miss Colby made a decidedly favorable impression on all who heard her. Of course, she is an enthusiast in favor of cities owning and operating all of its public conveniences for the benefit of the people at large; not a "paternal government" but a "fraternal city government." We shall be glad to hear her again, as she has something worthy of serious consideration.

TWENTIETH CENTURY.

All Japanese Are Gardeners.

Japan is a nation of gardeners. Every man, woman and child is passionately fond of flowers. Gardening is a religion.

Buy it in Janesville.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Fascinating complexion of a healthy face from using Satin Skin Cream and Satin Face Powder. 25c.

LOST—English bulldog, eight months old, brindled in color except white spot on breast. Bring him to the office of "The Janesville Journal" and we will endeavor to find him.

LOST—English bulldog, eight months old, brindled in color except white spot on breast. Bring him to the office of "The Janesville Journal" and we will endeavor to find him.

To insure a thorough test, we offer in quantities of not over two pounds to each customer.

MEXICAN JAVA 25c COFFEE 12½c LB.

We know its merit. We want you to know it. You are the decided gather any way you put it.

DON'T MISS IT

This is our well advertised 25c leader of which we are justly proud. This price is positively for tonight only.

Phones No. 9.

DEDRICK BROS.

THE GRAFTERS

By FRANCIS LYNDE

(Copyright, 1904, by The Bobbs-Merrill Company.)

CHAPTER I.

ASHES OF EMPIRE.

In point of time, Gaston the strenuous was still no more than a lusty infant among the cities of the brown plain when the boom broke and the Jinto was born, though its beginnings as a half camp ran back to the days of the later Mormon migrations across the thirsty plain; to that day when the advanced guard of Zophar Smith's ox-train dug wells in the damp sands of Dry creek and called them the waters of Merom.

Later, one Jethro Simbsy, a Mormon deserter, set up his rod and staff on the banks of the creek, homesteaded a quarter-section of the sage-brush plain, and in due time came to be known as the Dry creek cattle king. And the cow-camp was still Simbsy's when the locating engineers of the Western Pacific, searching for tank stations in a land where water was scarce and hard to come by, drove their stakes along the north line of the quarter-section; and having named their last station Alphonse, christened this one Gaston.

From the stake-driving of the engineers to the spike-driving of the track-layers was a full decade. For hard times overtook the Western Pacific at Midland City, 80 miles to the eastward; while the state capital, two days' bronco-jolting west of Dry creek, had railroad outlets in plenty and no inducements to offer a new-comer.

But with the breaking of the cloud of financial depression, the Western Pacific succeeded in placing its extension bonds, and a little later the earth began to fly on the grade of the new line to the west. Within a Sunday-month the electric lights of the night shift could be seen; and, when the wind was right, the shriek of the locomotive whistle could be heard at Dry creek; and in this interval between dawn and daylight Jethro Simbsy sold his quarter-section for the nominal sum of $2,000, spot cash, to two men who buck-boarded in ahead of the track-layers.

This purchase of the "J-lazy-S" ranch by Hawk and Guilford marked the modest beginning of Gaston the marvelous. By the time the temporary sidings were down and the tank well was dug in the damp sands, it was heralded far and wide that the Western Pacific would make the city on the banks of Dry creek—a city consisting as yet only of the Simbsy ranch shacks—its western terminus. Thereupon followed one of the senseless rushes that populate the waste places of the earth and give the professional city-builder his reason for being. In a fortnight after the driving of the silver spike the dusty plain was dotted with the black-roofed shelters of the Argonauts; and by the following spring the plow was furrowing the cattle ranges in ever-widening circles, and Gaston had voted a bond loan of $300,000 to pave its streets.

Then under the forced draft of skilful exploitation, three years of high pressure passed quickly; years named by the promoters the period of development. In the Year One the very heavens smiled and the rainfall broke the record of the oldest inhabitant. Thus the region round about lost the word "arid" as qualifying adjective, and the picturesque fictions of the prospectus makers were miraculously ins-

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier. In nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gasses and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectively clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All drugists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics. In tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from the continued use of them, but one the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

president, reproachfully. "I thought you had more backbone."

Kent shook his head. "Gaston has absorbed nine-tenths of the money I brought here; I'll absorb the remaining tenth myself, if it's just the same to you, Major. Thank you." And the 127th man pocketed his salvage from the wreck and fought his way out through the jam at the doors. Two hours farther along in the forenoon the Apache National suspended payment, and the bank examiner was wired for.

For suddenness and thoroughgoing completeness the Gaston bubble-bursting was a record breaker. For a week and a day there was a frantic struggle for enlargement, and by the expiration of a fortnight the life was pretty well trampled out of the civic corpse. It was in this same Year Two, the fame of the latest of western Meccas for young men having penetrated to the provincial backgrounds of New Hampshire, that David Kent came.

By virtue of his diploma, and three years of country practice in the New Hampshire country town where his father before him had read Blackstone and Chitty, he had his window on the fourth floor of the Farquhar building lettered "Attorney and Counselor at Law"; but up to the day in the latter part of the fatal Year Three, when the overture crash came, he was best known as a reckless plunger in real estate—this, mind you, at a moment when every third man counted his gains in "front feet," and was shouting himself hoarse at the daily brass-band lot sales.

When the bottom fell out in the autumn of the Year Three, Kent fell with it, though not altogether as far or as hard as many another. One of his professional hold-fasts—it was the one that afterward became the "broad-tie" in the famine time—was his position as local attorney for the railway company. By reason of this he was among the first to have a hint of the impending cataclysm. The Western Pacific, after so long a pause on the banks of Dry creek, had floated its second mortgage bonds and would presently build on to the capital, leaving Gaston to way-station quietude. Therefore and wherefore—

Kent was not lacking in native shrewdness or energy. He foresaw, not the pitiful bubble-burst which ensued, indeed, but the certain and inevitable end of the speculative era. Like everyone else, he had bought chiefly with promises to pay, and the paper in the three banks aggregated a sum equal to frugal New Hampshire competence.

"How long have I got?" was the laconic wire he sent to Loring, the secretary of the Western Pacific Advisory Board in Boston, from whom his hint had come. And when Loring replied that the grading and track-laying contracts were already awarded, there was at least one "long" on the Gaston real estate exchange who sought desperately, night and day, to "unload."

As it turned out, the race against time was both a victory and a defeat. On the morning when the Daily Clarion sounded the first note of public alarm, David Kent took up the last of his bank promissory-to-pay, and transferred his final mortgaged holding in Gaston realty. When it was done he locked himself in his office in the Farquhar building and balanced the account. On leaving the New Hampshire country town to try the new east for fortune in the golden west, he had turned his back on the telephone.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

Kent had not spoken since they had felt their way out of the dark lower-half of the Farquhar building. Up to this point the talk had been pointedly reinclusive; of the men, of their first university year, of mutual friends in the far-away "God's country" to eastward, of the Gastonian epic, of all things save only two—the exile's cast for fortune in the untamed west, and one other.

It was in the autumn of that first cataclysmic year that Secretary Loring, traveling from Boston to the state capital on a mission for the Western Pacific, stopped over a train with Kent. After a rather dispiriting dinner in the deserted Mid-Continent cafe, and some plowing of the field of recollection in Kent's rooms in the Farquhar building, they took the deserted street in the golden twilight to walk to the railway station.

It was a decent thing for you to do—stopping over a train with me, Grantham," said the host, when the five squares intervening had been half measured. "I have had all kinds of a time out here in this God-forsaken desert, but never until to-day, anything approaching a chummy hour with a man I know and care for."

</div

F. C. COOK & CO.

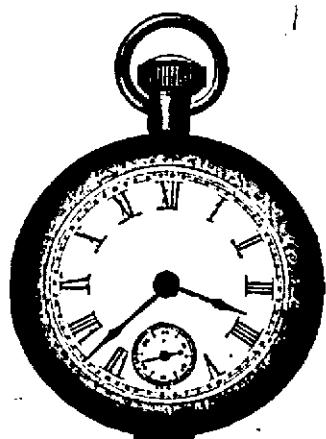

...TIMELY CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS...

Has it occurred to you that there are only TWELVE MORE XMAS SHOPPING DAYS remaining? It's a fact, and we would advise you to avoid the usual disagreeable holiday rush and purchase your Xmas gifts at once. Don't delay. It means a saving of time, money and great inconvenience. Then again you receive better attention, the salespeople having more time at their disposal to show the immense stocks.

FOR THE BOY

A Watch That Keeps Time and Makes the Youngsters' Heart Glad, $1. Others at $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3 & $3.50.

GIRLS LIKE TIME-KEEPERS ALSO

Splendid line of convenient size watches, $1 up to $10. Beautiful Chatelain Watches, solid silver and handsome enamel with Pin and Hook for the Dress, $10 and up to $15.

DIAMONDS FIT FOR A KING

And the American citizen is the king of the universe. Diamonds as gifts are unequalled. They never wear out. They never depreciate in value. 25 years' wear does not lower them in beauty or value. Our Diamond showing is very large and fine.

There is not a Christmas want which cannot be filled from this mammoth stock--More varied and of greater assortment than ever before.

GIFTS FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Manicure Sets,	$2 to $5
Pin Tray and Boxes,	$1 to $5
Steel Pins,50c to $1
Puff Boxes,	$1.25 to $5
Gold Thimbles,	$2.25 to $12
Rings, Plain and Jeweled,	$5 to $200
Lorgnette Glasses,	$4 up

WIRELESS UMBRELLAS

WIRELESS SILK UMBRELLAS

Re-lubbed while you wait. The new lasting rain and sun shifters; largest single invoice of fancy silk umbrellas ever brought to the city in the colors of the rainbow, $1.50 to $8.

MANTLE CLOCKS ARE NICE GIFTS

Our showing of elegant mantle clocks is attracting buyers. They are easy in price and of high quality, $5 to $25. Gold Dresser Clocks, handsome putetrons, at $2.50 and up.

GIFTS FOR LITTLE FOLKS

Baby and Sash Pins, Gold, pair,	50c to $2
Baby Rings, Gold,50c to $1
Gold Necklaces and Lockets,	$2.25 to $5
Silver and Gold Bracelets,50c to $1
Silver Brushes,	$1.50 to $2.50
Silver Plated Mugs,75c to $2
Silver Powder Boxes,	$2 to $5
Knife, Fork and Spoon,	$1 to $2
Toilet Bottles,	$1.50 to $3
Napkin Rings,50c to $3.50

LEATHER GOODS, SHOPPING BAGS, &c.

Pocket-books,50c to $3.50
Card Cases,	$1.25 to $2
Gold Clocks,	$2.25 to $10
Jewel Cases,	$1 to $8.50
Toilet Sets,	$2 to $10
Opera Glasses,	$2.50 to $5
Hat Brushes,	$1 to $2.50
Photo Frames,50c to $2

EYE GLASSES

Buy the glasses now for the one to whom you desire to make the gift and have the eyes tested and fitted by our expert optician, S. A. Knox, after Xmas. Mr. Knox was for 8 years assistant to W. F. Hayes and is capable and thorough.

GIFTS FOR YOUNG MEN

Gold Link Buttons,	$2.50 to $20
Gold Studs, Sets of Three,	$2.25 to $4
Gold Scarf Pins,	$1.25 to $10
Gold Rings,	$3 to $18
Jeweled Rings,	$10 to $125
Gold Collar Buttons,50c to $1.25
Solitaire Diamond Scarf Pins,	$10 to $150
Diamond Solitaire Studs,	$10 to $125
Jeweled Sleeve Link Buttons,50 to $25
Watch Chains, Single or Dble. Vest,	$2 to $25
Gold Filled Watches,	$10 to $40
Cigar Cases,	$1 to $25
Shaving Mugs,	$3 to $6

HANDSOME CARVING SETS

Useful every day in the year--you can't do better in selecting a gift. Our line is particularly strong. This year's beautiful stag or solid silver handle, 2- and 3-piece sets, 2-piece sets, $4 and $4.50, 3-piece sets, solid sterling silver, rich patterns, $6.

WATCHES
For men or women, the biggest kind of an assortment of the newest ideas in time-pieces. Ladies' fine gold filled watches, $10 and up. Solid gold watches as low as $20, and upwards to suit your pocket. Our watch stock consists of the leading makes: Elgin, Waltham, Etc.

TIMELY HINTS ON ITEMS OF APPRECIATION

A store full to overflowing of valuable articles new and novel, a few of them here: Silver Novelties, 30c up, comprising Manicure Articles, Shoe Horns, Tooth Brushes, Desk Articles, Clothes Brushes, Military Brushes, Etc., Silver Knives, Forks, Spoons, and complete Sets of Silver, Solid Silver Pieces in the new butter finish--rich effects. Solid Silver Toilet Sets of 3 pieces, Comb, Brush and Mirror, massive, rich patterns, $10 up to $18; Special Large Line of Brooches and Pins, in the new Rose Gold and Roman Gold effects, very attractive styles, $3.50 up to $30.

Beautiful diamond brooches, $40 up, to $200. Rich cut Glass in great variety. Pieces at 75c, such as carver rests, handsome patterns at higher price. Chafing Dishes, Art China pieces, Antique, Brass, Etc., Etc.

F. C. COOK & CO.

Opposite Old Postoffice

PUTNAM'S

Christmas Furniture

..Library Chairs..

The very large, roomy kind, Leather covered, plain or rush seats. In Golden Oak and Weathered Oak. We have them in a great many styles from $3.00 Up.

A Very Elegant Dressing Table,

Like cut, MAHOGANY, BIRD'S EYE MAPLE and GOLDEN OAK, French Beveledplate Mirror, French Legs. Various styles of finishing suitable for most any color arrangement.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY PRICES...

Ladies' Writing Desks.

Nothing would be more desirable or appropriate. We have them from $5.00 to $25.00. We will hold in our store rooms all articles purchased now that are intended for gifts until Christmas, and deliver them at that time if desired.

The cut shown here represents one of our special bargains in fine Parlor Furniture. We have

Fancy Rockers of Every Description

Mahogany and Leather covered Rockers, Morris Chairs, ranging in price to suit any occasion.

Chairs from $1.00 up &

TOY DEPARTMENT, Second Floor.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Now for the Holiday Selling

It is hard to know just where to begin. It will be equally hard to know just where to stop. There are so many things to talk about; good things, useful things, ornamental things; things that we have been carefully selecting for months past to make this holiday equipment second to none.

The store has donned its Christmas dress. The goods are all displayed to the best advantage for easy choosing; nothing has been neglected or overlooked. We are ready for the great throng of gift buyers, and we want to say right here that we have never been more completely, more enthusiastically ready than now.

Handsome Furs for Christmas Gifts

There's a special showing of Furs, all bought for Christmas gifts. The popular shapes made of the most popular skins. You should investigate these.

Suit Pieces—They are in strong demand and make excellent presents. Beautiful suit pieces in gray squirrel, mink, marten, beaver, mole skin.

A $5.00 Scarf of Isabella dyed Opossum we consider extra good value. Plenty of them now. From $18 to $45 we show an assortment of Isabella Scarfs, the choicest pieces from many large lines, beautifully blended, fine soft skins.

A $10 Scarf of dyed marten, large double scarf, is a winner. Quantity limited.

Blue Fox Sets—Gray Lynx Scarfs—pretty novelties for Holiday selling.

Misses' and Children's Sets—many taking things that give pleasure to the young folks.

Nearseal Jackets--

We make a specialty of Fur Jackets of Nearseal and our line receives many compliments. Women who have been to Chicago and Milwaukee returned and bought here, satisfied that ours were better. Easy to prove our statements. There are many poor jackets in the market and many women get taken in every winter.

Our Electric Seal Jackets

compare favorably with what many merchants call nearseal.

Nearseals, $45 to $60.
Electric Seals, $25 to $35.

WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP.